

use or disclose Protected Health Information without an individual's authorization.

We may use or disclose your Protected Health Information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include:

Required by Law: We may use or disclose your Protected Health Information to the extent that the use or disclosure is required by law. The use or disclosure will be made in compliance with the law and will be limited to the relevant requirements of the law. You will be notified, as required by law, of any such uses or disclosures.

Public Health: We may disclose your Protected Health Information for public administrative tribunal (to the extent such disclosure is expressly authorized), in certain conditions in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process.

Law Enforcement: We may also disclose your Protected Health Information, provided applicable legal requirements are met, for law enforcement purposes.

Workers' Compensation: Your Protected Health Information may be disclosed by us as to comply with workers' compensation laws and other similar legally-established programs.

s

Inmates: We may use or disclose your .8130.2 -1.2 rInformation if you are an inmate of a correctional facility and your physician has created or received your .8130.2 -1.2 rInformation in the course of providing care to you.

s

4. Other Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information That May Be Made With Your Authorization or Opportunity to Object

s

We may use and disclose your .8130.2 -1.2 rInformation in the following instances. You have the opportunity to agree or object to the use or disclosure of all or part of your .8130.2 -1.2 rInformation. If you are not present or able to agree or object to the use or disclosure of the .8130.2 -1.2 rInformation, then your physician may, using professional judgment, determine whether the disclosure is in your best interest. In this case, only the Protected Health Information that is relevant to your care will be disclosed.

s

Workforce Health and Safety

information. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal. Please contact our Privacy Officer to determine if you have questions about amending your medical records.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of your Protected Health Information. This right applies to